Invitation to International Symposium on Frontiers in Bioimaging

Dear Colleagues:

On behalf of Institute of Atomic and Molecular Sciences (IAMS), it is our great pleasure to invite all of you to the International Symposium on Frontiers in Bioimaging that will be held in Taipei, Taiwan from October 26th-27th 2015. This symposium will have distinguished sections with one plenary talk, 13 invited talks and one poster session. Prestigious scientists and researchers will present their most recent work about investigating biology and medical sciences using novel imaging techniques.

This symposium is part of the celebration of the 20th anniversary of IAMS and all the registration fees will be sponsored by Academia Sinica and Ministry of Science and Technology.

On-line registration and abstract submission system are now open.
